

The Kansas Humanities Council is pleased to announce a Call for Applications for the 2013 Poet Laureate of Kansas. The Poet Laureate serves as a leader in strengthening citizen engagement with the humanities through poetry.

The Poet Laureate will serve a two-year term beginning in April 2013. Activities will include audience discussions, special engagements, and a statewide project of his or her design that advances the reach and impact of poetry in Kansas.

Deadline: 5:00 PM Friday
February 22

Call for Applications

Poet Laureate of Kansas

Kansas Humanities Council

For details and the application, please visit the Kansas Humanities Council website at www.kansashumanities.org.

The Kansas Humanities Council promotes the understanding of the history, traditions, and ideas that shape our lives and strengthen our communities.