

Bring a poem to share to KHC’s “Poetry Potluck,” the Kansas Humanities Council’s virtual get-together to celebrate April’s National Poetry Month. Kansans are invited to participate in this year’s easy, free statewide Pin-Up Poetry project by writing, reading, and sharing poetry about:

- Food
- Family
- Special Occasions
- Casual Picnics
- Strange Salads
- Hearty Casseroles
- Childhood Memories
- The Best Meal You’ve Ever Had
- Comfort Food
- Bizarre Food
- Your Grandmother’s Favorite Food
- Food You Hate
- Is It Food?
- Or Other Food-Inspired Topics

Write your own poem or the poetry of another poet, with attribution, on the postcard and give it to your librarian to share with KHC.

Then, follow KHC on Pinterest to see your Pin-Up Poetry Poem, www.pinterest.com/kshumanities.
